

Bringing the Online In Line with Human Rights

2002 to 2022 - 20 years of combating cyber hate:
Lessons learned and future challenges

Location: Apollo Hotel Amsterdam

Day 1 - 3rd November

12.30 - 1.00: Coffee

1.00 - 1.15: Words of welcome by Philippe Schmidt

1.15 - 2.00: “No soup for you” – 20 years of INACH by Stefan Glaser

2.00 - 2.30: Keynote - From websites to social media by Karolin Schwarz

2.30 - 3.00: Coffee break

3.00 - 3.15: Introduction to Recommendation CM/Rec(2022)16 on combating hate speech by the Council of Europe by Menno Ettema

3.15 - 4.00: Recommendation 2022(16) on combating hate speech by the Council of Europe's Committee of Ministers: the challenges of implementation by Tarlach Mcgonagle

4.00 - 4.15: Short coffee break

4.15 - 4.45: The Digital Services Act – will it protect users from online violence? by Josephine Ballon

4.45 - 5.30: Policies and regulations beyond the European Union - in Russia and its sphere of legal influence by Alexander Verkhovsky

5.30 - 5.35: Closing by Steffen Eisentraut

5.35 - 6.00: Networking

Followed by drinks in town at Café Gollem in the Pijp for those who wish to join!

Day 2 - 4th of November

9.30 - 10.00: Coffee

10.00 - 10.05: Introduction of the second day by Selma Muhič

10.05 - 10.50: Conspiracy theories and misinformation - Stories from the European Observatory of Online Hate by Jordy Nijenhuis

10.50 - 11.20: Keynote - Gender-based hate speech: a Ukrainian approach by Ksenia Termasina

11.20 - 12.20: Parallel workshops on Gender-based hate speech

Workshop 1 - Normalization of online gender-based hate: how made-to-measure AI solutions and policy making can help tackle this problem by Elizabeth Cappon and Selma Muhič, moderated by Cordelia Moore

Workshop 2 - Gender-based hate speech and cyber violence – State of Play and recommended actions by Paula Thijs and Laura Kaun, moderated by Andrea Cox

12.20 - 13.20: Coffee/lunch break

13.20 - 13.50: Keynote - Activism against ignorance: Lithuanian success (?) story - by Vladimir Simonko

13.50 - 14.50: Parallel workshops on anti-LGBTQ+ hate speech

Workshop 1 - NGOs fighting against LGBTQ+ hate speech, lessons learned from Lithuania and Hungary by Egle Kuktoraitė and Robert Buzsaki, moderated by Tomer Aldubi

Workshop 2 - LGBTQ+ victim protection and challenges, the NGO and IT perspectives by Sara Soares and Julia Mozer, moderated by Valentin Gonzales

14.50 - 15.00: Call to action and awarding of the Ronald and Suzette prize by Jonathan Vick

15.00 - 15.05: Closing by Tamas Berecz

15.05 - 15.30: Networking

Supported by the Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values Programme (CERV) of the European Union

Sponsored by Google and Twitter

